

Purpose

The Association Profession Choreographie was founded in 1997 in Zurich and is approved by the tax office of the Kanton of Zurich as a nonprofit and neutral organisation according to the Swiss Civil Code, Art. 60 et sqq. Its purpose is to promote young choreographers. To this end the Swiss coaching project for choreographers is organised every year.

Members of the board

- Regina Christen, lic.phil.I (MA), President
- Michael Boxer, lic.oec. HSG (MBA)
- Jochen Heckmann, choreographer and ballet director, Augsburg
- Denise Lampart, choreographer
- Christian P. Michel, RA lic.iur. (MA)
- Sandra Nussberger, choreographer
- Ursula Pellaton, dance publicist (BA)
- Teresa Rotemberg, choreographer
- Richard Wherlock, choreographer and ballet director, Basel

Controlling: Fasser & Leuenberger, Zurich (chartered accountants)

Membership

As a member you regularly receive information on SiWiC including the latest news regarding the respective artistic director, the selected choreographers and dancers and time and place of SiWiC-events. You will be invited to the annual general meeting to the final w.o.r.c.s. as well as to the open house day.

Membership fee

- Sole membership, Fr. 50.- annual fee
- Collective membership, Fr. 250.- annual fee
- Patron membership, Fr. 500.- annual fee
- Sponsoring membership, Fr. 5'000.- annual fee
- Promoting membership, Fr. 10'000.- annual fee

Answering form (PDF)